Timely Disclosure of Conflict of Interest situations is one of the manifestations of proper performance of fiduciary duties by members of the Company Board of Directors and can be done in one of the following ways:

- within 10 (ten) business days from the date of election to the Company Board of Directors, a member of the Company Board of Directors must send to the Corporate Secretary of the Company a completed questionnaire. The form of questionnaire is to be preliminarily agreed by the Board of Directors and approved by the Company. The said questionnaire form shall be sent by the Corporate Secretary of the Company to the member of the Board of Directors immediately after his/her election to the Board of Directors;

- immediately, but no later than 1 (one) business day from the date of changes in the information contained in the previously sent questionnaire, the member of the Company Board of Directors must send the Corporate Secretary of the Company an updated questionnaire;
- immediately, but not later than 1 (one) business day from the date when a member of the Company Board of Directors learned or should have learned that he/she has or may have a Conflict of Interest, he/she must send a written notification disclosing the relevant information through the Corporate Secretary of the Company addressed to the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors (or addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors in the event that a Conflict of Interest arises or may arise for the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors);
- if a member of the Company Board of Directors finds out that he/she has or may have a Conflict of Interest, directly during a meeting of the Company Board of Directors, he/she must make a notification orally directly during the meeting before the discussion of the item with respect to which the member of the Board of Directors has a Conflict of Interest, recording the situation of the Conflict of Interest and the measures taken to settle it in the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Disclosure of information may be carried out by notifying the Company through the Company's information system, which allows to identify a member of the Board of Directors

If conditions arise that lead to a dissolution of a Conflict of Interest, which has been earlier reported to the Company, the corresponding member of the Company Board of Directors must report this in a manner similar to the procedure for the Disclosure of a Conflict of Interest.

4.3. Consideration, resolution and implementation of measures to resolve a Conflict of Interest

An entitled employee of the Company's Business Ethics and Compliance Department participates in the consideration of a Conflict of Interest and its settlement (providing recommendations for settlement).

A member of the Board of Directors who has disclosed a Conflict of Interest is subject to mandatory notification of the progress of consideration and settlement of the Conflict of Interest, as well as of the Company's recommendations received.

Abstention from participation in voting is the main measure to resolve a Conflict of Interest of a member of the Company Board of Directors. If a Conflict of Interest cannot be resolved in such a way additional measures are taken.

Cases of non-settlement of a Conflict of Interest (non-fulfillment of the Company's recommendations) are brought to the attention of the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company.

4.3.1. Settlement of a Conflict of Interest by abstention from participation in voting

A member of the Company Board of Directors who has a Conflict of Interest on an item on the agenda of a meeting of the Company Board of Directors must abstain from participation in voting on such an agenda item.

In cases where the nature of the issue under discussion or the specifics of the Conflict of Interest requires so, the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors asks the member of the Company Board of Directors who has a relevant Conflict of Interest not to be present when such an issue is discussed at the meeting of the Company Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors discovers a Conflict of Interest in relation to himself/herself, he/she makes a decision on whether it is appropriate for him/her to be present during the discussion of the relevant issue at the meeting of the Company Board of Directors, being guided by the Conflict of Interest Managing Principles (Section 3 of this Procedure).

If a Conflict of Interest is settled and resolved by abstaining from participation in voting on issues in respect of which a member of the Company Board of Directors has a Conflict of Interest, information about this must be reflected in the minutes of the meeting of the Company Board of Directors without filling out the form of questionnaire.

4.3.2. Settlement of a Conflict of Interest in situations when the essence of the Conflict of Interest requires other measures in addition to and/or apart from the abstention from participation in voting

If the essence of a Conflict of Interest makes it impossible to settle and resolve the Conflict of Interest by abstaining from participation in voting, consideration and settlement of such Conflict of Interest of a member of the Board of Directors is carried out in the manner, within the time frame and in accordance with the procedures established by the Conflict of Interest Management Policy. If necessary, the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors or other persons are to be involved in taking measures to resolve the Conflict of Interest of a member of the Company Board of Directors in accordance with the Conflict of Interest Management Policy.
