the Board of Directors) shall be included on a mandatory basis in the materials provided at the Board of Directors meetings to the members of the Board of Directors of the Company. The procedure for settling a conflict of interests of the members of the Company's Board of Directors is determined in Annex 1 to these Regulations.

- 2.3.5. Independent members of the Board of Directors play a key role in prevention of corporate conflicts and evaluation of substantial corporate actions taken by the Company. Independent directors preliminarily evaluate and analyze possible actions and Company's draft solutions, which can cause a corporate conflict.
- 2.3.6. A member of the Board of Directors, as well as persons related to him/her³, shall not receive gifts or other forms of remuneration from persons interested in a decision of the Board of Directors providing such persons with direct or indirect benefits.
- 2.3.7. A member of the Board of Directors shall observe the provisions of the Company's approved policies and procedures applicable to the Board of Directors' activities, including the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, the Policy on Compliance with Anticorruption Legislation, the Policy on a Conflict of Interests Management (with specifics envisaged by Annex No. 1 "The Procedure for Settling a Conflict of Interests of the Board of Directors Members") .

2.4. Liability of the Board of Directors members

- 2.4.1. Members of the Board of Directors shall be liable to the Company for losses caused to the Company by their culpable acts and omissions in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation. However, the members of the Board of Directors who voted against (or did not participate in voting on) a resolution that resulted in losses to the Company shall not be liable for the consequences of the resolution.
- 2.4.2. The Company or a shareholder (shareholders) holding in the aggregate at least 1% (one percent) of the outstanding ordinary shares of the Company may take legal action against a member of the Board of Directors to recover losses caused to the Company in cases provided for by the current laws of the Russian Federation.
- 2.4.3. The Company shall maintain insurance covering liability of the members of the Board of Directors arising from legal actions or claims brought against a member/members of the Board of Directors by third parties or the Company's shareholders in connection with business decisions or other acts taken by such member/members in the capacity of members of the Board of Directors of the Company or its subsidiaries.

2.5. Composition of the Board of Directors

- 2.5.1. The number of the Board of Directors members shall be determined by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Company's Charter.
- 2.5.2. The members of the Company's Executive Body may not comprise more than 25% (twenty five percent) of the members of the Board of Directors.
- 2.5.3. If the number of members of the Board of Directors falls below the number required to constitute a quorum for its meetings, the Board of Directors shall adopt a resolution to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a new Board of Directors. The authority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall be limited to the adoption of such resolution.
- 2.5.4. Retired members of the Board of Directors shall mean the members who are defined in Company's Charter as the "retired", including, but not limited to, the deceased, or missing, or declared incapable, as well as a member of the Board of Directors notified the Company of

³The notion of the related persons of a member of the Board of Directors for the purposes of this clause and settling a conflict of interest of the Board of Directors member is contained in Annex No. 1 "The Procedure for Settling a Conflict of Interests of the Board of Directors members". 2.6. Election of Board of Directors Members and Termination of Powers of the Board of Directors Members

2.6.1. The Board of Directors members shall be elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the manner set forth in the Company's Charter, the Regulations, and the Regulations on the General Meeting of Shareholders for a term ending at the next annual General Meeting of Shareholders. If an annual General Meeting of Shareholders is not held within the time period prescribed by article 47 paragraph 1 of the Federal Law "On Joint Stock Companies", the powers of Company's Board of Directors shall be terminated, with the exception of those powers associated with preparing for, calling, and holding the annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The powers of all members of the Board of Directors may be terminated early at an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

- 2.6.2. Any individual nominated by a shareholder, or by any other persons or management bodies entitled under the laws of the Russian Federation to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors, and elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the prescribed manner may be a member of the Board of Directors. When selecting candidates for the Board of Directors, the criteria recommended for selection of candidates set forth in Annex No. 2 hereto are taken into account.
- 2.6.3. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors considers the following when evaluating candidates nominated to the Board of Directors:
- (1) Whether the candidate possesses the highest competency, judgment and integrity;
 - (2) Whether the candidate possesses an understanding of the regulatory and political environment in which the Company does its business;
 - (3) Diverse experience in meeting business, financial and other challenges that a major Russian company may face;
 - (4) The ability to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and fully participate in the activities of the Board of Directors and Committees of the Board of Directors of the Company;
 - (5) Candidate compliance with the criteria of independence;
 - (6) Results of obligatory assessment of candidate's profile in the sphere of compliance and business ethics.
- 2.6.4. Persons elected to the Board of Directors may be re-elected an unlimited number of times. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall consider the following when evaluating a director for re-election:
- (1) A director's contribution to the effective functioning of the Company, including transfer of relevant professional experience in the course of the Board of Directors activity;
 - (2) Any change in the director's principal area of responsibility with his/her own company or in his or her employment, including the resignation from his principal position;
 - (3) The ability to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and fully participate in the activities of the Board of Directors and Committees of the Board of Directors of the Company;
 - (4) The development of any relationships with the Company or another organization, or creation of other circumstances, that might make it inappropriate for the director to continue its activities as capacity of the member of the Board of Directors; and Application on advanced training of a member of the Board of Directors shall be satisfied only when additional knowledge and skills are required for a director to successfully perform duties of a member of Company's Board of Directors. The decision on advanced training of a member of the Board of Directors shall contain an indication to the targets of the advanced training as well as a ceiling amount of expenses allocated for the purpose. Expenses for advanced training of Company's Board of Directors members shall be covered with funds from the Company's appropriate budget.

6. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 6.1. These Regulations, as well as amendments and additions hereto shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the manner stipulated by the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation, the Charter and the Regulations on the General Meeting of Shareholders of Mobile TeleSystems Public Joint Stock Company.
- 6.2. In case of any amendments to the legislation of the Russian Federation and(or) the Company's Charter the provisions of these Regulations contradict the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation and(or) the Company's Charter, the provisions of the legislation of the Russian Federation and(or) the Company's Charter apply.

Procedure to Resolve Conflicts of Interest of the Company Board Members

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. This Procedure to resolve conflicts of interests of the Company Board members (hereinafter referred to as the "Procedure") determines the aspects and principles of conflict-of-interest management for the members of the Company Board of Directors.
- 1.2. This Procedure has been drawn up in accordance with the applicable laws, the Company Charter and the Company Conflict of Interest Management Policy.

2. TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

State Institution is any body of state authority and administration of the Russian Federation and foreign states, their entities (including government ministries, services, agencies, government departments and their structural units) and local government; any political party; all legal entities directly or indirectly controlled by the state (Russian or a foreign one); legal entities whose activities are perceived by society as the exercise of a public function for the state, with the exception of those fulfilling legal requirements; international public institutions.

Conflict of Interest is a situation in which the Personal Interest (direct or indirect) of a member of the Company Board of Directors, or the fact that he/she or his/her Related Persons hold office in the governing bodies of other institutions or companies that are not part of MTS Group, affects or may affect the proper, objective and unprejudiced fulfillment of his/her duties (exercise of powers) in the Company.

Personal Interest is an opportunity for a member of the Company Board of Directors and (or) his/her Related Parties to receive income (except for income under employment contracts with the Company, which is a permanent part of remuneration) in the form of cash, other property, including property rights, property services, results of work performed or any other assets (or benefits including in the form of debt release).

Disclosure is an act of informing about a Conflict of Interest in accordance with this Procedure.

Related Persons: for the purposes of this Procedure, Related Persons means Family Members and individuals or institutions with whom a member of the Company Board of Directors and (or) Members of his/her family are related by means property, corporate or other close relationships that give rise to Personal Interest.

Family Members means individuals who are in close relationship with or are married to a member of the Company Board of Directors, namely spouses (including those divorced and (or) in an unregistered (civil) marriage), parents, children, adoptive parents and adopted children, guardians and trustees, grandfathers, grandmothers, grandchildren; full and half brothers and sisters (including cousins), as well as their children (including adopted children) and spouses; children (including adopted children) of spouses and spouses of children; brothers, sisters (including cousins) and parents (including adoptive parents, guardians), grandmothers, grandfathers and grandchildren of the spouses, as well as other persons who live together and (or) run a joint household with him/her.

Members of the Company Board of Directors of the / Board Members are individuals elected to the Company Board of Directors and who are its current members (including the Chairman of the Board of Directors).

3. CONFLICT OF INTEREST MANAGING PRINCIPLES

Conflicts of Interest involving members of the Company Board of Directors are managed in accordance with applicable law, the Company Charter, the Company Conflict of Interest Management Policy, subject to decisions and recommendations of the Company governing bodies, committees and management, as well as subject to law enforcement practices, and is based on the concepts of fiduciary duties of the Company Board members (duty to act in good faith and reasonably in the interests of the Company).

The key principles of managing Conflicts of Interest are:

- immediate Disclosure of information about a Conflict of Interest by a member of the Company Board of Directors;
- voluntary refusal from any activity (and in some cases refusal from inactivity) in a Conflict of Interest situation until the Company makes a decision to resolve it;
- delineation of powers: the Company strives to clearly delineate the powers of members of governing bodies, other bodies, committees and employees of the Company in making decisions in such a way so as to exclude a Conflict of Interest, and in case if a Conflict of Interest occurs, to minimize its consequences by means of settlement;
- individualized consideration and assessment of risks when identifying and settling each case of a Conflict of Interest;
- the 4-(four)-eyes concept when making decisions, when considering situations and selecting measures to resolve a Conflict of Interest;
- fairness and independence: persons whose interests are or may be affected by a Conflict of Interest must not influence the decisions on the consideration and resolution of their Conflicts of Interest;
- confidentiality of the process of information Disclosure about a Conflict of Interest and of its resolution process;
- maintaining the balance of interests of the Company and a member of the Company Board of Directors when resolving a Conflict of Interest;
- protection of a member of the Company Board of Directors from persecution in connection with the Disclosure of a Conflict of Interest;
- liability for losses caused to the Company by guilty actions (inaction), including those that occurred as a result of failure to take measures to disclose and (or) to resolve a Conflict of Interest.

4. MANAGING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

4.1. Detecting Conflicts of Interest

The emergence of a Conflict of Interest is monitored by members of the Company Board of Directors in relation to themselves and their Related Persons on an ongoing basis by comparing facts and circumstances with the essence of definitions from this Procedure and the Company Conflict of Interest Management Policy (for example, "Conflict of Interest", "Personal Interest", "Related Persons").

4.2. Disclosing Conflicts of Interest

Timely Disclosure of Conflict of Interest situations is one of the manifestations of proper performance of fiduciary duties by members of the Company Board of Directors and can be done in one of the following ways:

- within 10 (ten) business days from the date of election to the Company Board of Directors, a member of the Company Board of Directors must send to the Corporate Secretary of the Company a completed form in accordance with Annex No. 1.1 to the Regulation on the Company Board of Directors;

- immediately, but no later than 1 (one) business day from the date of changes in the information contained in the previously sent form in accordance with Annex No. 1.1 to the Regulations on the Company Board of Directors, the member of the Company Board of Directors must send the Corporate Secretary of the Company an updated form in accordance with Annex 1.1 to the Regulations on the Company Board of Directors;
- immediately, but not later than 1 (one) business day from the date when a member of the Company Board of Directors learned or should have learned that he/she has or may have a Conflict of Interest, he/she must send a written notification disclosing the relevant information through the Corporate Secretary of the Company addressed to the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors (or addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors in the event that a Conflict of Interest arises or may arise for the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors);
- if a member of the Company Board of Directors finds out that he/she has or may have a Conflict of Interest, directly during a meeting of the Company Board of Directors, he/she must make a notification orally directly during the meeting before the discussion of the item with respect to which the member of the Board of Directors has a Conflict of Interest, recording the situation of the Conflict of Interest and the measures taken to settle it in the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

If conditions arise that lead to a dissolution of a Conflict of Interest, which has been earlier reported to the Company, the corresponding member of the Company Board of Directors must report this in a manner similar to the procedure for the Disclosure of a Conflict of Interest.

A Conflict of Interest is considered and settled (recommendations for settlement are provided) with the involvement of the Business Ethics and Compliance Department of the Company.

4.3. Consideration, resolution and implementation of measures to resolve a Conflict of Interest

Abstention from participation in voting is the main measure to resolve a Conflict of Interest of a member of the Company Board of Directors. If a Conflict of Interest cannot be resolved in such a way additional measures are taken.

4.3.1. Settlement of a Conflict of Interest by abstention from participation in voting

A member of the Company Board of Directors who has a Conflict of Interest on an item on the agenda of a meeting of the Company Board of Directors must abstain from participation in voting on such an agenda item.

In cases where the nature of the issue under discussion or the specifics of the Conflict of Interest requires so, the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors asks the member of the Company Board of Directors who has a relevant Conflict of Interest not to be present when such an issue is discussed at the meeting of the Company Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors discovers a Conflict of Interest in relation to himself/herself, he/she makes a decision on whether it is appropriate for him/her to be present during the discussion of the relevant issue at the meeting of the Company Board of Directors, being guided by the Conflict of Interest Managing Principles (Section 3 of this Procedure).

If a Conflict of Interest is settled and resolved by abstaining from participation in voting on issues in respect of which a member of the Company Board of Directors has a Conflict of Interest, information about this must be reflected in the minutes of the meeting of the Company Board of Directors without filling out the form in accordance with Annex 1.1 to the Regulations on the Company Board of Directors.

4.3.2. Settlement of a Conflict of Interest in situations when the essence of the Conflict of Interest requires other measures in addition to and/or apart from the abstention from participation in voting

If the essence of a Conflict of Interest makes it impossible to settle and resolve the Conflict of Interest by abstaining from participation in voting, consideration and settlement of such Conflict of Interest of a member of the Board of Directors is carried out in the manner, within the time frame and in accordance with the procedures established by the Conflict of Interest Management Policy. If necessary, the Chairman of the Company Board of Directors or other persons are to be involved in taking measures to resolve the Conflict of Interest of a member of the Company Board of Directors in accordance with the Conflict of Interest Management Policy.

A member of the Board of Directors of the Company who discloses a Conflict of Interest must in all cases be notified of the course of consideration and resolution of the Conflict of Interest.

4.3.3. Actions of the Company in situations when a member of the Board of Directors having a Conflict of Interest has refused to abstain from participation in voting

If irrespective of the identified Conflict of Interest of a member of the Board of Directors and recommendations received from the Company (including the Business Ethics and Compliance Department) to abstain from voting, the member of the Board of Directors has refused to abstain from voting on the agenda item of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company with respect to which he/she has a Conflict of Interest, the following measures are taken:

- If a member of the Board of Directors ignores a recommendation to abstain from voting and votes in a conflict-of-interest situation, and his/her vote is not decisive on the relevant issue, the Board of Directors can, but is not obliged to, inform shareholders about this fact and clearly state that the member of the Board of Directors acted in violation of MTS' Regulations on the Board of Directors at the next election of the members of the Board of Directors including by listing it in the information about candidates that is presented to persons entitled to participate in General Meeting of Shareholders, if the member of the Board of Directors is nominated for re-election.
- If a member of the Board of Directors ignores a recommendation to abstain from voting and votes in a conflict-of-interest situation, and when his/her vote was decisive on the relevant issue, the Board of Directors must inform shareholders about this fact and clearly state that the member of the Board of Directors acted in violation of MTS' Regulations on the Board of Directors at the next election of the members of the Board of Directors by listing it in the information about candidates that is presented to persons entitled to participate in General Meeting of Shareholders, if the member of the Board of Directors is nominated for re-election.
- If a member of the Board of Directors repeatedly ignores recommendations to abstain from voting and votes in conflict-of-interest situation, the Board of Directors is obligated to consider convening a General Meeting of Shareholders to hold a new election for members of the Board of Directors.

5. POSSIBLE SITUATIONS OF A CONFLICT OF INTEREST OF MEMBERS OF THE COMPANY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Possible situations of a Conflict of Interest of the members of the Company Board of Directors include, but are not limited to⁷:

- A business decision in relation to a transaction between the Company and the majority shareholder and/or a company that is part of the majority shareholder's Group, made under the circumstances where a member of the Company Board of Directors holds office in the governing bodies of the company that is part of the majority shareholder's Group:

Example: A member of the Company Board of Directors votes on an issue related to the approval or consideration of a transaction (several interconnected transactions) between the ⁷ An extended, but not exhaustive list of examples of possible situations of a Conflict of Interest is given in the Company's Conflict of Interest Management Policy.

Company or an MTS Group company, on the one hand, and the Company majority shareholder of a company that is part of its Group, on the other hand, provided that such a member of the Company Board of Directors simultaneously holds office in the governing bodies of the Company majority shareholder or of a company from its Group.

- External employment / senior positions:

Example: A member of the Company Board of Directors wishes to take a position in the governing body of a company that is a competitor of MTS Group in one of its target markets.

- A business decision in relation to the Company made while holding office in a company that is part of a competitor's Group:

Example: A member of the Company Board of Directors holds a similar position on the Board of Directors of another company that is a competitor of the MTS Group in one of its target markets and votes on an issue related to transactions with a company of the competitor's Group, or to the activities of an MTS Group company in the same market where the competitor is present.

- Using the Business Opportunity for personal benefit or in favor of the Related Persons:

Example: A member of the Company Board of Directors, by virtue of his/her official powers, has access to information that has commercial value for a competitor headed by a Member of the Family of such a member of the Company Board of Directors.

- Gifts, hospitality of entertainment events:

Example: A member of the Company Board of Directors gets a significant discount on the merchandise of a company that is or seeks to become a Counterparty of the Company and in respect of which a decision is required to continue or begin cooperation, however, such discounts are not provided by that company to other persons on a standard basis.

6. ADVICE ON DETECTING A CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Members of the Company Board of Directors who have questions about the process of detecting and resolving their Conflicts of Interest, or have doubts about the correctness of their estimation of whether such Conflicts of Interest exist (do not exist), as well as questions regarding the provisions of this Procedure, may contact the Corporate Secretary of the Company for clarification.

The Parties have entered into this legally binding agreement (hereinafter referred to as the “Agreement”) as the basis for the information to be presented by one Party to the other Party in order to achieve the above purposes of each of the Parties, to arrange circulation of the information between the Parties, and to provide for confidentiality of the information disclosed, including protection and non-disclosure thereof.

1. DEFINITION OF TERMS

Unless the context expressly requires otherwise, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning assigned to them as described below and may be used in singular or in plural.

1.1. Confidential Information

- (a) “Confidential Information” means any information, including agreements, presentations, financial data, accounts and records, opinions of external consultants and other documents, business correspondence, audiovisual materials and other data that the Disclosing Party has provided to the Receiving Party in hard copy, in digitized, electronic or any other form, by whatever medium and in whatever format, including orally or in writing, via electronic or fax message, by computer communication, by granting access through placing at an office, in meeting rooms or other premises, in virtual data rooms, network folders, web-portals, server resources with an option of remote access via Internet, electronic document management systems, etc. before or after conclusion hereof.
- (b) Depending on sensitivity of the Confidential Information for the Disclosing Party, such information may be marked by the Disclosing Party at its discretion as follows, where appropriate:
 - (i) by “Confidential” mark and/or

- (ii) by "Trade Secret" mark and, if required, by additional reference to the name and location address of the Disclosing Party or by any other marks as the Disclosing Party deems appropriate.

Any information that is furnished to the Receiving Party by the Disclosing Party by any means will be deemed to be Confidential Information and will be protected under the Agreement regardless of any markings mentioned above, except for the exclusions listed below.

Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that:

- (i) can not be deemed Confidential Information by virtue of law;
 - (ii) was or became publicly available/generally known due to the disclosure by the Disclosing Party or other parties;
 - (iii) has been received by the Receiving Party from any sources on a non-confidential basis or on the grounds/under the conditions that do not compel the Receiving Party to maintain confidentiality or that release it from such an obligation;
 - (iv) has been independently created by the Receiving Party based on the information obtained from the open sources.
- (c) Should any information classified as Confidential Information pursuant hereto be used in any way in a form different from that in which it was disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party (e.g. as a result of a changed wording, paraphrasing, etc.), such information shall be deemed to be Confidential Information despite all such differences.

1.2. Insider Information

- (a) "Insider Information" means any material non-public information, including that on the List of Insider Information of MTS PJSC approved in accordance with the procedure established by the RF legislation. The List of Insider Information of MTS PJSC is disclosed in the Internet information and telecommunication network on the MTS official website: <http://www.mts.ru/>.
- (b) Information is deemed "material", if a reasonable investor is likely to consider it important when taking an investment-related decision or if such information significantly changes the general data on the Company available to the investors or is capable of substantially affecting the market value of securities.
- (c) information is deemed "non-public", provided it has not become widespread or made available to the investors via mass media and with the use of any other permitted methods of information disclosing designated to make the information publicly available. Spreading of rumors, even if they are reliable and are published in mass media, shall not be deemed actual public distribution of the information. After the information is publicly disseminated, 48 hours should pass for the market to respond to such information. The information shall only be deemed public upon expiry of 48 hours.
- (d) Insider Information shall always be deemed to be Confidential Information.

1.3. Receiving Party and Disclosing Party

- (a) "Receiving Party" means a Party receiving the Confidential Information from the other Party.
- (b) "Disclosing Party" means a Party disclosing the Confidential Information to the other Party.

2. PRINCIPAL PROVISIONS

2.1. Confidentiality obligation

a) The Receiving Party shall:

- (i) provide for confidentiality, protection and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and, where applicable, the trade secret mode in compliance with the legal requirements of the Russian Federation and the provisions hereof;
- (ii) refrain from publicly disclosing, commenting or transferring the Confidential Information to any third parties without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, except in cases permitted by this Agreement;
- (iii) upon the written request of the Disclosing Party, if the Confidential Information is stored on any media and the media of the Confidential Information are:
 - owned by the Receiving Party – destroy (delete) such Confidential Information from such media within the time limit specified in the request with no possibility of restoration;
 - owned by the Disclosing Party – return all such media to the Disclosing Party within the time limit specified in the request.

The Receiving Party should, upon request of the Disclosing Party, confirm that such destruction has occurred. Notwithstanding the return or destruction of the Confidential Information, the Receiving Party will be bound by the confidentiality obligations and by other obligations under this Agreement.

- (iv) when detecting any facts (or should there be any suspected facts) of disclosure of the Confidential Information to third parties immediately inform the Disclosing Party on such facts and take whatever measures are necessary to mitigate any potential damage caused by such breach;
- (v) use the Confidential Information solely for the purposes of estimating whether it can be nominated to be elected as a member of the MTS Board of Directors and shall not use the same for any other purposes;
- (vi) refrain from using the Confidential Information in correspondence with third parties, in public speaking and from referring to it in mass media;
- (vii) not transfer the Confidential Information via the open telephone or facsimile communication channels, as well as using the Internet information and telecommunication network without applying the data cryptographic protection facilities in respect of the relevant category of the data transferred;
- (viii) not use the Confidential Information when engaged in any other activities, including when employed with any other companies, and in the scientific and pedagogical activities;
- (ix) know MTS local regulatory acts on protection of the Confidential Information and adhere to the provisions thereof.

The term “party” used herein should be construed widely enough as including, but not limited to, mass media, any individuals and legal entities, partnerships, groups and other persons.

b) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause 2.1 (a) of the Agreement, the Receiving Party may provide the Confidential Information to the parties stated below in the following cases:

- (i) to competent public authorities upon their reasonable requests;
- (ii) to securities market regulators and exchanges provided that the respective Confidential Information is required to be transferred to them under the applicable legislation, rules of the regulators and exchanges or under their reasoned request.

- c) The Receiving Party shall be liable to the Disclosing Party for any actions and/or omission, violation, non-performance or improper performance by the Receiving Party or by any third parties who received the Confidential Information from the Receiving Party of the obligations and restrictions envisaged hereby, and shall without delay take any actions contemplated hereby and any other actions necessary to ensure proper protection, prevent misuse, unauthorized disclosure, dissemination of the Confidential Information or commenting thereof by the Receiving Party.

2.2. Information disclosure required by law

- a) Where the Receiving Party is requested to provide the Confidential Information by any competent public authorities, securities market regulators, exchanges or by any other authorized parties, the Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Disclosing Party in writing on any such request (except to the extent such notification from the Receiving Party is prohibited in pursuance of a law or a reasoned instruction of the requesting party), which will make it possible for the Disclosing Party to timely find any possible remedies to protect the Confidential Information and to take the required legitimate actions to ensure secrecy, protection and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information, including to dispute any relevant request or claim, etc.
- b) If, in the absence of the legal, administrative or other remedies or in case of the Disclosing Party's waiver of the right to dispute the request or otherwise protect the Confidential Information from claims for involuntary transfer, the Receiving Party is obliged to disclose the Confidential Information, the Receiving Party may only disclose a reasonable part thereof claimed by the requestor.

2.3. Release from liability and warranties

- (a) Notwithstanding that the Disclosing Party will use reasonable endeavors to provide the Receiving Party with the accurate, complete, relevant and reliable information upon its requests/applications, the Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that the Disclosing Party provides no representations and warranties in whatever form as to the accuracy, completeness, relevancy and reliability of the Confidential Information, except to the extent the respective representations and/or warranties are expressly provided. The Receiving Party agrees that the Disclosing Party shall not be held liable to the Receiving Party in respect of or as a result of the use of the Confidential Information or any fallacies or omissions contained therein, except to the extent the respective representations and/or warranties are expressly provided.

2.4. Transfer of Confidential Information

- a) Upon request of the Disclosing Party that may be made by it from time to time during the term hereof, the Receiving Party should sign the Confidential Information Transfer and Acceptance Certificate(s) executed between the Parties.
- b) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby additionally acknowledged that provision of the Confidential Information to the Receiving Party without signing of the Confidential Information Transfer and Acceptance Certificate shall in no way cancel or impair confidentiality (including protection and non-disclosure) of the Confidential Information so presented and shall not release the Receiving Party from the obligations to maintain the secrecy mode of the Confidential Information provided (including protection and non-disclosure thereof) and from the obligations to be fulfilled under the Agreement.

2.5. Rights to Confidential Information

Unless otherwise provided for by the written agreement between the Parties, all rights to the Confidential Information shall be reserved by the Disclosing Party and/or by other right holders, and entering into this Agreement and providing the Confidential Information to the Receiving Party shall not be deemed granting to the Receiving Party of any other rights in respect of the Confidential Information, except of those expressly specified by the Agreement or any other legally binding contract or the applicable law.

2.6. Liability

A Party who has violated any of its obligations under this Agreement shall indemnify the other Party for the losses (including, but not limited to, legal expenses) caused by actions (failure to perform actions) in relation to Confidential Information in violation of this Agreement.

3. REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO SECURITIES TRADED ON STOCK EXCHANGES

3.1. The Parties understand and acknowledge that:

- a) MTS financial instruments have been listed and are traded on stock exchanges and that in some cases the Confidential Information may from time to time be deemed the Insider Information in terms of the applicable laws and regulations.
- b) In order to observe the applicable legislation and the exchange regulations, the Receiving Party shall ensure that the Receiving Party and related parties comply with the requirements stated below in case they are granted access to the Insider Information:
 - (i) to refrain from using the Insider Information for carrying out transactions with the financial instruments, foreign currency and (or) goods the Insider Information is related to, on its own account or on the account of a third party, except for making transactions as part of performance of the matured obligation on sale or purchase of the financial instruments, foreign currency and (or) goods, provided that such obligation has arisen as a result of the transaction made prior to the Insider Information became known to the party;
 - (ii) to refrain from using the Insider Information by transferring it to a third party, except for cases when this information was transferred to an individual, included in the list of Insiders due to the execution of obligations set forth by the federal laws or due to the execution of labor obligations or execution of a contract;
 - (iii) to refrain from using the Insider Information by providing recommendations to third parties, i.e. obligating or otherwise making them acquire or sell financial instruments, foreign currency and (or) goods.
- c) The Receiving Party shall, within ten (10) working days from the date of making by it (or by related parties) of the transaction involving MTS financial instruments and (or) entering into an agreement being a derivative financial instrument with the value depending on the MTS financial instruments, provide MTS with the information on such transactions in one of the following ways:
 - (i) by sending an electronic copy of the notice (in pdf format) to e-mail insider@mts.ru;
 - (ii) by sending a notice by registered letter to the address: 5 Vorontsovskaya street, building 2, 109147, Moscow (marked: to the Corporate Law Department)
 - (iii) by other ways provided for by legislation.

3.2. By signing this Agreement, the Receiving Party represents (acknowledges) that:

- (a) it is made aware of the list of data constituting the MTS Insider Information pursuant to the legislation of the Russian Federation.
- (b) it is made aware of the Regulation on the principles and procedures to prevent transactions involving MTS Insider Information approved by resolution of the MTS Board of Directors dated February 25, 2015 (Minutes No. 233).

4. ANTI-CORRUPTION PROVISIONS

- 4.1. The Parties acknowledge that they have in-house documents and procedures in force designated to prevent corruption and that in performance of their obligations hereunder they undertake:
- a) to refrain from any corrupt practices, including from offering, giving, promising, extorting, giving consent to receive and receiving bribes and/or from making any payments to simplify administrative, bureaucratic and other formalities;
 - b) to inform each other without delay on any cases of infringement of the above clause (a) and to provide any additional comments and necessary information (documents) as may be requested.

5. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 5.1. This Agreement and obligations of the Parties hereunder shall become effective from the date of signing by both Parties and shall be valid during 3 years following signing hereof, and in case the Receiving Party is elected as a member of the MTS Board of Directors – during 3 years following termination of its being a member of the MTS Board of Directors. No unilateral repudiation of this Agreement shall be allowed.
- 5.2. Should any of the provisions hereof be found illegal or unenforceable, other provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect.
- 5.3. This Agreement has been signed in testimony of the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior undertakings, agreements and obligations of the Parties with regard to the subject matter hereof.
- 5.4. All annexes, supplements and amendments hereto shall become an integral part hereof and be valid if executed in writing and signed by the authorized representatives of the Parties.
- 5.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, if applicable regulations (in particular, but not limited to, the following regulations, by-laws, etc.) establish special requirements to the treatment of any information (for example, with personal data, etc.), such requirements shall be fulfilled by the Parties, even if they were not set forth in this Agreement.
- 5.6. Neither Party shall have the right to transfer or otherwise assign all or some of its rights or obligations hereunder without prior written consent of the other Party.
- 5.7. This Agreement shall be governed by the law of the Russian Federation. Disputes and controversies concerning relations between the Parties hereunder shall be resolved through negotiations. If no agreement is reached between the Parties through negotiations, the dispute shall be referred to the Arbitration Court of Moscow.

 - date of submission to the Board of Directors Secretary of information materials on the previous assignments issued by the Board of Directors.
- 4.13. Information notice on preparation of materials to the Board of Directors shall be copied to Secretary of the Company's Management Board (or of the relevant committee that is responsible for prior discussion of materials on items on the agenda for the Board of Directors' meeting).
- 4.14. Secretary of the Company's Management Board (or Secretary of the relevant committee, if applicable) shall arrange for discussion of the materials for the Board of Directors by the Company's Management Board (relevant committee).
- 4.15. The Company's Management Board (or relevant committee, if applicable) shall discuss the information materials for the Board of Directors meeting no later than 10 (ten) calendar days prior to the date of the Board of Directors meeting.
- 4.16. Responsible executives shall correct, expand, and revise the information materials to the Board of Directors meeting on the basis of recommendations issued by the Company's Management Board meeting (or meeting of the relevant committee, if applicable) and shall submit them to the Board of Directors Secretary not later than 7 (seven) calendar days prior to the date of the Board of Directors meeting.
- 4.17. If no materials on the items on the agenda of the Board of Directors meeting were received by the Board of Directors Secretary at least 7 (seven) calendar days prior to the date of the Board of Directors meeting, the Secretary shall without delay inform MTS PJSC President of the above for taking decision on the need to address the Board of Directors Chairman with a request to authorize the delay of provision of the material of the item to Board of Directors members.
- 4.18. If necessary the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall arrange for translation into English of the provided information materials on the items on the agenda for the Board of Directors meeting.
- 4.19. All members of the Board of Directors should be notified of a meeting of the Board of Directors not later than 5 (five) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.
- 4.20. The notification of the meeting shall include: (1) timing and venue for the meeting; (2) items on the agenda; (3) notification of the members of the Board of Directors about the need to report if they have a conflict of interest on the meeting agenda items.
- 4.21. The notification of the Board of Directors meeting shall be signed by Board of Directors Chairman or on his behalf by Board of Directors Secretary.
- 4.22. The notification of the meeting shall be forwarded in written form to all Board of Directors members by e-mail and/or by posting the notice text in the electronic document management system designed for collective management bodies of the Company. The notice of the meeting may also be sent by mail, telegraph, and fax or otherwise, as convenient for the members of the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 4.23. The Board of Directors Chairman shall advise all Board of Directors members of any change in timing or venue for the Board of Directors meeting taking into account the time they need on the way to get to the venue of the meeting.
- 4.24. The Board of Directors members shall be supplied with complete information materials on each item on the agenda. Information files on the agenda item are not provided to the member of the Board of Directors with a conflict of interest.

- 4.25. When convening the Board of Directors meeting, all members shall be provided with the following information materials:
- information on fulfillment of resolutions previously adopted by the Board of Directors;
 - explanatory/information note and/or presentations on each item on the agenda identifying the persons who submitted the issue to the Board of Directors, the substance of the issue, applicable law, draft resolution, procedure for resolution adoption and other relevant information;
 - draft corporate documents submitted to the Board of Directors for approval;
 - draft business-plans (budgets, financial plans) and other plans and programs submitted to the Board of Directors for approval;
 - information on major transactions and related-party transactions submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration, as well as material terms & conditions of such transactions.
 - information held by the Company about a conflict of interest of a member of the Board of Directors with respect to the agenda items of the meeting of the Board of Directors, as well as recommendations of the Company (including the Business Ethics and Compliance Department) regarding the conflict of interest settlement.

If the information about a Conflict of Interest of a member of the Board of Directors was disclosed by the member of the Board of Directors after the distribution of materials for a meeting of the Board of Directors, and the information about the Conflict of interests was not included therein, the information about such conflict of interest and recommendations on its settlement are provided to the members of the Board of Directors by the Secretary of the Board of Directors in addition to the previously provided materials. If the information about a Conflict of Interest is disclosed by a member of the Board of Directors directly at the meeting of the Board of Directors, such information is orally communicated to the members of the Board of Directors by the Chairman prior to the discussion of the item with respect to which the member of the Board of Directors has a Conflict of Interest, this being appropriately recorded in the minutes, as well the measures taken to settle the Conflict of Interest.

- 4.26. Any information materials on the agenda items may be sent to the members of the Board of Directors together with the notice of the meeting or separately, but not later than 5 (five) calendar days prior to the meeting in any case. The information materials on the agenda items are provided to the members of the Board of Directors by e-mail or by posting in the electronic document management system designed for collective management bodies of the Company.
